VC sets 'Garrison Tapes'

NEW YORK—Pay-per-view service Viewer's Choice will offer "The JFK Assassination: The Jim Garrison Tapes," a docu that incorporates an in-depth interview with the former New Orleans district attorney, whose story was included in Oliver Stone's "JFK."

Viewer's Choice will start offering the work July 22, which is also the same day the docu is released on videocassette. The documentary is a Blue Ridge/Filmtrust presentation in association with John Barbour Films and has only been screened in a few theaters.
